

2025 Wedding Trends: Why Indian Couples Prefer Digital Invitations

Indian marriages are grand and lively and are filled with rituals that spread generations. Traditionally, the first step in this festival was sending printed wedding cards—often ornate handicrafts—and physically distributing them. But in today's fast-moving world, there is a new trend to change the wedding plan: digital invitations.

On Manav Invites, we are at the forefront of this digital revolution, which helps couples across India to create unforgettable, environmentally friendly, and beautifully designed e-invitations for their big days.

Why digital invitations dominate Indian weddings

1. Environmentally friendly and durable

Traditional invitations use premium paper, laminate of plastic, and chemical ink—all of which leave a heavy carbon footprint. In Manav Invites, we provide paperless invitation solutions that are environmentally responsible and elegantly simple. Do you know A single wedding can ruin more than 100 kg of paper in an alone invitation.

2. Cost-effective without compromising style

The price of a specific printed card (with boxes, inserts, and delivery) can be ₹ 100 - ₹ 500 per piece. Conversely, the cost of a digital fraction invited a fraction with more design flexibility.

With Manav Invitation, you can choose from video invitation, GIF card, and WhatsApp-friendly formats without breaking your budget.

3. Share immediately, update anytime.

Forget the postal delay. With one click, you can share your e-card through WhatsApp, email, or Instagram. And if your site, timing, or dress code changes, then update the file and register.

Pro tip from manavinvites.com: Our invitations come with live RSVP tracking, clickable sitable maps, calendar sync, and real-time updates.
